

Television stations should not be allowed to own newspapers in the same market, keep alive the 1975 law that forbids large corporations from owning all media outlets in a given area. You are attempting to allow way to much concentration and control of media by fewer and fewer. Keep media alive.